What's in a Name?

On my last trip to the Holy Land a visit was made to a village not far from Bethlehem which I had wanted to see for a long time. Among the residents of al Khader almost every single man and boy is called 'George' or 'Khader', the Muslim equivalent of George. Of course I wanted to see the village church – guess what? Yes, Saint George's!

Of mixed Palestinian and Syrian parentage, Saint George himself came from this very village. George was a historical figure with whom many myths and legends have become intertwined. He was a Christian in the Roman army, who refused the order to kill fellow believers and so was imprisoned and executed. I was able to reverence the chains in which it is said George was held captive, and which are kept in the church into which our Muslim hosts welcomed us.

Al Khader literally translates 'the green one', and with his Springtime Eastertide feast day he is a figure of new life and growth. Perhaps this is why we have taken him to our hearts as being as typically English and evocative of 'Merrie England'. George is sometimes also identified with the Prophet Elijah and as such is honoured by both Christians and Muslims.

Above all in these troubled times we pray for communities and nations divided by increasing violence to focus on a common desire for peace and a true love – not least love of the holy lands to which many faiths claim a sense of belonging, even while engaged in their wanton destruction.

The international community of the Church like the village of al Khader is made up of those who share one name. Christians carry the name of Jesus Christ and seek to live as sisters and brothers in the one human family.

Nick is here to minister to all who have need in our parish. He is keen to be told if someone has moved in and to have an opportunity to visit newcomers. Holy Communion can be arranged for the housebound or those who are sick. Nick tries to take Friday as a rest day each week, so he kindly suggests that you only contact him on a Friday in matters of urgency

RUSPER CHRONICLE

Our February meeting was postponed due to the importance of a meeting on the proposed development West of Ifield the same evening. We were sorry to postpone it, but West of Ifield is an important issue for the future of Rusper.

PUTTING PEN TO PAPER will be the subject of our next meeting on Tuesday March 12th.

So, who are some of these people who have left us a record of life in Rusper? Thomas Marchant is the earliest, keeping a diary from 1712 to 1728. He was a yeoman farmer living in Hurstpierpoint – but his wife, Elizabeth Stone, was born and brought up at Rusper Nunnery, and there are plenty of items in the diary referring to Rusper. The Stones lived at the Nunnery for well over 100 years. We have a copy of this very copious diary for you to see and much to learn of life as a yeoman farmer.

Between 1820 and 1840 Thomas Smith, Curate at Rusper, kept notes on the village and its residents. In 1920 Revd Synnott published his less than fond memories in “Five Years of Hell in a Sussex Village” but remained Rector for several years afterwards.

In 1908 Herbert Adams came as headmaster to Rusper School. His small son remembers Rusper School and life in Rusper and an idyllic childhood till the coming of the First World War. Almost at the end of the Second World War Ron Farley wites home to his mother. And now our own Rector has written his memories in “A Tithe of Rosemary”.

As always at our meetings we try and go back to original documents, so plenty to look at. Do you have other written accounts? If so, please bring them to share. And hear more about all these people writing of life in Rusper through the ages.

Tuesday 12th March, 7pm in the small hall, Rusper Village Hall.

Margaret White
